

Sentence Expansion

Basic Structure

S + V + O + Manner + Place + Time

Eg., He spoke clearly (How?) in the meeting (Where?) this morning (When?)

1. I read a book quietly in the library every afternoon.

S: I | V: read | O: a book | Manner: quietly | Place: in the library | Time: every afternoon

2. She washed the dishes carefully in the kitchen yesterday.

S: She | V: washed | O: the dishes | Manner: carefully | Place: in the kitchen | Time: yesterday

3. They played football happily in the park last Sunday.

S: They | V: played | O: football | Manner: happily | Place: in the park | Time: last Sunday

4. He finished his homework quickly at home last night.

S: He | V: finished | O: his homework | Manner: quickly | Place: at home | Time: last night

5. We planted flowers carefully in the garden this morning.

S: We | V: planted | O: flowers | Manner: carefully | Place: in the garden | Time: this morning

6. The children sang a song loudly in the classroom yesterday.

S: The children | V: sang | O: a song | Manner: loudly | Place: in the classroom | Time: yesterday

7. My father drove the car safely on the highway this morning.

S: My father | V: drove | O: the car | Manner: safely | Place: on the highway | Time: this morning

8. The teacher explained the lesson clearly in the classroom today.

S: The teacher | V: explained | O: the lesson | Manner: clearly | Place: in the classroom | Time: today

9. • Rina cooked dinner happily at home last evening.

S: Rina | V: cooked | O: dinner | Manner: happily | Place: at home | Time: last evening

10. • The baby drank milk slowly in the bedroom before bedtime.

S: The baby | V: drank | O: milk | Manner: slowly | Place: in the bedroom | Time: before bedtime

11. I drink tea slowly at home every morning.
12. She writes emails carefully in the office every day.
13. They clean the classroom quietly at school every Friday.
14. He reads the newspaper attentively in the living room every evening.
15. We play football happily in the park every Saturday.
16. I am reading a book quietly in the library now.
17. She is washing the dishes carefully in the kitchen at the moment.
18. They are learning English actively in the classroom this week.
19. He is repairing the bicycle carefully in the garage now.
20. We are watching a movie happily at home tonight.
21. I watched a movie quietly at home yesterday.
22. She finished her homework carefully in her room last night.
23. They played basketball energetically in the playground last evening.
24. He cleaned the car thoroughly in the yard yesterday morning.
25. We visited our grandparents happily in the village last weekend.
26. I was doing my homework carefully in my room at 8 p.m. yesterday.
27. She was cooking dinner happily in the kitchen at 7 p.m. yesterday.
28. They were playing football excitedly in the field yesterday afternoon.
29. He was reading a book quietly in the library at that time.
30. We were planting trees carefully in the garden yesterday morning.

Thigh
Tough
Though
Through Thorough
Thoroughly
Throughout
Tight
Rough

1. She Works

1. She works. (who works?)
 2. She works every day. (How often does she work?) (When does she work?)
 3. She works every day at a hospital. (where does she work?)
 4. She works every day at a hospital as a nurse. (what is she?) (what does she do?)
 5. She works every day at a hospital as a nurse because she loves helping people. (Why does she work in a hospital?)
-

2. My Brother Works

1. My brother works.
2. My brother works in a hospital.
3. My brother works in a hospital as a doctor.

4. My brother works in a hospital as a doctor in our city.
 5. My brother works in a hospital as a doctor in our city and helps many patients every day.
-

3. I Found a Wallet

1. I found a wallet.
 2. I found a wallet on the road.
 3. I found a wallet on the road this morning.
 4. I found a wallet on the road this morning while I was walking to work.
 5. I found a wallet on the road this morning while I was walking to work, so I picked it up.
-

4. He Wants to Learn English

1. He wants to learn.
 2. He wants to learn English.
 3. He wants to learn English quickly.
 4. He wants to learn English quickly for his career.
 5. He wants to learn English quickly for his career because it is an international language.
-

5. The Teacher Asked a Question

1. The teacher asked a question.
 2. The teacher asked a question in class.
 3. The teacher asked a question in class this morning.
 4. The teacher asked a question in class this morning, but no one answered.
 5. The teacher asked a question in class this morning, but no one answered because it was difficult.
-

6. I Opened the Door

1. I opened the door.
2. I opened the door slowly.
3. I opened the door slowly and walked inside.
4. I opened the door slowly and walked inside after knocking.
5. I opened the door slowly and walked inside after knocking because I didn't want to disturb anyone.

7. The Baby Was Sleeping

1. The baby was sleeping.
 2. The baby was sleeping peacefully.
 3. The baby was sleeping peacefully in the bedroom.
 4. The baby was sleeping peacefully in the bedroom when I came home.
 5. The baby was sleeping peacefully in the bedroom when I came home, so I closed the door quietly.
-

8. My Friend Travels

1. My friend travels.
 2. My friend travels every summer.
 3. My friend travels every summer with his family.
 4. My friend travels every summer with his family to different cities.
 5. My friend travels every summer with his family to different cities because they enjoy exploring new places.
-

9. She Made a Cake

1. She made a cake.
 2. She made a chocolate cake.
 3. She made a chocolate cake for her family.
 4. She made a chocolate cake for her family on Sunday.
 5. She made a chocolate cake for her family on Sunday using a new recipe.
-

10. My Father Called Me

1. My father called me.
 2. My father called me yesterday.
 3. My father called me yesterday evening.
 4. My father called me yesterday evening while I was studying.
 5. My father called me yesterday evening while I was studying to ask about my exams.
-

11. We Had Dinner

1. We had dinner.
 2. We had dinner together.
 3. We had dinner together at a restaurant.
 4. We had dinner together at a restaurant last night.
 5. We had dinner together at a restaurant last night to celebrate my birthday.
-

12. She Is Reading

1. She is reading.
2. She is reading a book.
3. She is reading a book in her room.
4. She is reading a book in her room every evening.
5. She is reading a book in her room every evening after finishing her homework.

1. (Simple Present) – He

1. He plays.
 2. He plays football.
 3. He plays football every Saturday.
 4. He plays football every Saturday with his friends.
 5. He plays football every Saturday with his friends because he enjoys sports.
-

2. (Simple Present) – I

1. I drink.
 2. I drink coffee.
 3. I drink coffee every morning.
 4. I drink coffee every morning before work.
 5. I drink coffee every morning before work because it helps me stay awake.
-

3. (Simple Present) – She

1. She cooks.
2. She cooks dinner.

3. She cooks dinner every evening.
 4. She cooks dinner every evening for her family.
 5. She cooks dinner every evening for her family because she loves cooking.
-

4. (Simple Present) – We

1. We study.
 2. We study English.
 3. We study English every day.
 4. We study English every day in class.
 5. We study English every day in class because we want to speak fluently.
-

5. (Simple Present) – My Mother

1. My mother wakes up.
 2. My mother wakes up early.
 3. My mother wakes up early every morning.
 4. My mother wakes up early every morning to prepare breakfast.
 5. My mother wakes up early every morning to prepare breakfast for our family.
-

6. (Simple Past) – They

1. They visited.
 2. They visited Pokhara.
 3. They visited Pokhara last month.
 4. They visited Pokhara last month by bus.
 5. They visited Pokhara last month by bus and enjoyed the beautiful scenery.
-

7. (Simple Past) – I

1. I bought.
 2. I bought a bag.
 3. I bought a bag yesterday.
 4. I bought a bag yesterday at the market.
 5. I bought a bag yesterday at the market because my old one was torn.
-

8. (Simple Past) – My Friend

1. My friend lost.
 2. My friend lost his keys.
 3. My friend lost his keys yesterday.
 4. My friend lost his keys yesterday at school.
 5. My friend lost his keys yesterday at school but found them later.
-

9. (Simple Past) – She

1. She wrote.
 2. She wrote a letter.
 3. She wrote a letter last night.
 4. She wrote a letter last night to her sister.
 5. She wrote a letter last night to her sister because she missed her.
-

10. (Simple Past) – My Father

1. My father repaired.
 2. My father repaired the bicycle.
 3. My father repaired the bicycle yesterday.
 4. My father repaired the bicycle yesterday afternoon.
 5. My father repaired the bicycle yesterday afternoon so I could ride it today.
-

11. (Present Continuous) – He

1. He is running.
 2. He is running in the park.
 3. He is running in the park this morning.
 4. He is running in the park this morning with his brother.
 5. He is running in the park this morning with his brother to stay healthy.
-

12. (Present Continuous) – We

1. We are cleaning.
2. We are cleaning the classroom.

3. We are cleaning the classroom now.
 4. We are cleaning the classroom now with our teacher.
 5. We are cleaning the classroom now with our teacher before the lesson begins.
-

13. (Present Continuous) – I

1. I am writing.
 2. I am writing an email.
 3. I am writing an email now.
 4. I am writing an email now to my manager.
 5. I am writing an email now to my manager about tomorrow's meeting.
-

14. (Past Continuous) – She

1. She was reading.
 2. She was reading a book.
 3. She was reading a book yesterday evening.
 4. She was reading a book yesterday evening in the library.
 5. She was reading a book yesterday evening in the library when I saw her.
-

15. (Past Continuous) – They

1. They were playing.
 2. They were playing games.
 3. They were playing games after school.
 4. They were playing games after school in the park.
 5. They were playing games after school in the park when it started to rain.
-

16. (Present Perfect) – I

1. I have finished.
 2. I have finished my homework.
 3. I have finished my homework today.
 4. I have finished my homework today before dinner.
 5. I have finished my homework today before dinner, so I can relax.
-

17. (Present Perfect) – We

1. We have visited.
 2. We have visited Lumbini.
 3. We have visited Lumbini twice.
 4. We have visited Lumbini twice with our family.
 5. We have visited Lumbini twice with our family and learned a lot about its history.
-

18. (Simple Future) – She

1. She will travel.
 2. She will travel to Japan.
 3. She will travel to Japan next year.
 4. She will travel to Japan next year with her friends.
 5. She will travel to Japan next year with her friends to see the cherry blossoms.
-

19. (Simple Future) – I

1. I will call.
 2. I will call my parents.
 3. I will call my parents tonight.
 4. I will call my parents tonight after work.
 5. I will call my parents tonight after work because I miss them.
-

20. (Simple Future) – Our Teacher

1. Our teacher will give.
2. Our teacher will give us homework.
3. Our teacher will give us homework tomorrow.
4. Our teacher will give us homework tomorrow after class.
5. Our teacher will give us homework tomorrow after class to help us practise English.

1. (Simple Present) – The children

1. The children play.
 2. The children play outside.
 3. The children play outside every afternoon.
 4. The children play outside every afternoon after school.
 5. The children play outside every afternoon after school because they enjoy fresh air.
-

2. (Simple Present) – My sister

1. My sister sings.
 2. My sister sings songs.
 3. My sister sings songs every day.
 4. My sister sings songs every day at home.
 5. My sister sings songs every day at home because she loves music.
-

3. (Simple Present) – We

1. We eat.
 2. We eat breakfast.
 3. We eat breakfast together.
 4. We eat breakfast together every morning.
 5. We eat breakfast together every morning before going to work.
-

4. (Simple Present) – He

1. He drives.
 2. He drives a taxi.
 3. He drives a taxi in Kathmandu.
 4. He drives a taxi in Kathmandu every day.
 5. He drives a taxi in Kathmandu every day to support his family.
-

5. (Simple Present) – Our teacher

1. Our teacher explains.
2. Our teacher explains grammar.
3. Our teacher explains grammar clearly.
4. Our teacher explains grammar clearly in class.
5. Our teacher explains grammar clearly in class so everyone understands.

6. (Simple Past) – They

1. They watched.
2. They watched a movie.
3. They watched a movie last night.
4. They watched a movie last night at home.
5. They watched a movie last night at home because it was raining.

7. (Simple Past) – My uncle

1. My uncle planted.
2. My uncle planted trees.
3. My uncle planted trees last week.
4. My uncle planted trees last week near his house.
5. My uncle planted trees last week near his house to make the area greener.

8. (Simple Past) – She

1. She cleaned.
2. She cleaned the kitchen.
3. She cleaned the kitchen yesterday.
4. She cleaned the kitchen yesterday after lunch.
5. She cleaned the kitchen yesterday after lunch because guests were coming.

9. (Simple Past) – I

1. I met.
2. I met my friend.
3. I met my friend yesterday.
4. I met my friend yesterday at the café.
5. I met my friend yesterday at the café and we talked for an hour.

10. (Simple Past) – The boys

1. The boys played.
 2. The boys played cricket.
 3. The boys played cricket yesterday.
 4. The boys played cricket yesterday in the playground.
 5. The boys played cricket yesterday in the playground until sunset.
-

11. (Present Continuous) - She

1. She is washing.
 2. She is washing the dishes.
 3. She is washing the dishes now.
 4. She is washing the dishes now in the kitchen.
 5. She is washing the dishes now in the kitchen because the guests have left.
-

12. (Present Continuous) - My father

1. My father is fixing.
 2. My father is fixing the fan.
 3. My father is fixing the fan now.
 4. My father is fixing the fan now in the living room.
 5. My father is fixing the fan now in the living room because it stopped working.
-

13. (Present Continuous) - They

1. They are waiting.
 2. They are waiting for the bus.
 3. They are waiting for the bus now.
 4. They are waiting for the bus now at the station.
 5. They are waiting for the bus now at the station because they are going to Pokhara.
-

14. (Past Continuous) - We

1. We were talking.
2. We were talking quietly.
3. We were talking quietly after class.

4. We were talking quietly after class in the library.
 5. We were talking quietly after class in the library when the teacher arrived.
-

15. (Past Continuous) – My mother

1. My mother was cooking.
 2. My mother was cooking dinner.
 3. My mother was cooking dinner yesterday evening.
 4. My mother was cooking dinner yesterday evening in the kitchen.
 5. My mother was cooking dinner yesterday evening in the kitchen while I was doing my homework.
-

16. (Present Perfect) – He

1. He has completed.
 2. He has completed the course.
 3. He has completed the course successfully.
 4. He has completed the course successfully this year.
 5. He has completed the course successfully this year and received a certificate.
-

17. (Present Perfect) – My parents

1. My parents have bought.
 2. My parents have bought a car.
 3. My parents have bought a new car.
 4. My parents have bought a new car this month.
 5. My parents have bought a new car this month for family trips.
-

18. (Simple Future) – We

1. We will visit.
2. We will visit our grandparents.
3. We will visit our grandparents next weekend.
4. We will visit our grandparents next weekend by bus.
5. We will visit our grandparents next weekend by bus to spend time with them.

19. (Simple Future) – My brother

1. My brother will start.
 2. My brother will start a new job.
 3. My brother will start a new job next month.
 4. My brother will start a new job next month in Kathmandu.
 5. My brother will start a new job next month in Kathmandu after finishing his studies.
-

20. (Simple Future) – The students

1. The students will take.
2. The students will take the exam.
3. The students will take the exam tomorrow.
4. The students will take the exam tomorrow morning.
5. The students will take the exam tomorrow morning after revising their lessons.

21. (Present Continuous) – My brother

1. My brother is reading.
2. My brother is reading a book.
3. My brother is reading a book in the library.
4. My brother is reading a book in the library this afternoon.
5. My brother is reading a book in the library this afternoon before his class.

22. (Simple Past) – The teacher

1. The teacher explained.
2. The teacher explained the lesson.
3. The teacher explained the lesson clearly.
4. The teacher explained the lesson clearly yesterday.
5. The teacher explained the lesson clearly yesterday before the test.

23. (Present Perfect) – She

1. She has finished.
2. She has finished her homework.
3. She has finished her homework already.
4. She has finished her homework already this evening.
5. She has finished her homework already this evening before dinner.

24. (Past Continuous) – They

1. They were playing.
2. They were playing football.
3. They were playing football in the park.
4. They were playing football in the park yesterday afternoon.
5. They were playing football in the park yesterday afternoon when it started to rain.

25. (Future Continuous) – I

1. I will be studying.
2. I will be studying English.
3. I will be studying English at home.
4. I will be studying English at home tomorrow evening.
5. I will be studying English at home tomorrow evening for my exam.

26. (Simple Present) – The baby

1. The baby cries.
2. The baby cries loudly.
3. The baby cries loudly every night.
4. The baby cries loudly every night before sleeping.
5. The baby cries loudly every night before sleeping because he is hungry.

27. (Past Perfect) – We

1. We had cleaned.
2. We had cleaned the classroom.
3. We had cleaned the classroom carefully.
4. We had cleaned the classroom carefully before lunch.
5. We had cleaned the classroom carefully before lunch yesterday.

28. (Present Perfect Continuous) – He

1. He has been working.
2. He has been working hard.
3. He has been working hard all day.
4. He has been working hard all day in the office.
5. He has been working hard all day in the office to finish the report.

29. (Simple Future) – Our team

1. Our team will win.
2. Our team will win the match.
3. Our team will win the match next week.
4. Our team will win the match next week with confidence.
5. Our team will win the match next week with confidence if everyone plays well.

30. (Past Continuous) – The children

1. The children were singing.
2. The children were singing songs.
3. The children were singing songs happily.
4. The children were singing songs happily in the classroom.
5. The children were singing songs happily in the classroom during the celebration.

31. (Simple Present) – My parents

1. My parents cook.
2. My parents cook dinner.
3. My parents cook dinner together.
4. My parents cook dinner together every evening.
5. My parents cook dinner together every evening after work.

32. (Future Perfect) – She

1. She will have completed.
2. She will have completed the project.
3. She will have completed the project by Friday.
4. She will have completed the project by Friday afternoon.
5. She will have completed the project by Friday afternoon with her team.

33. (Present Continuous) – The bus

1. The bus is coming.
2. The bus is coming now.
3. The bus is coming to the station.
4. The bus is coming to the station in a few minutes.
5. The bus is coming to the station in a few minutes from the city.

34. (Simple Past) – My friend

1. My friend bought.
2. My friend bought a bicycle.
3. My friend bought a bicycle last month.
4. My friend bought a bicycle last month from a local shop.
5. My friend bought a bicycle last month from a local shop for his brother.

35. (Present Perfect) – They

1. They have visited.
2. They have visited Pokhara.
3. They have visited Pokhara twice.
4. They have visited Pokhara twice this year.
5. They have visited Pokhara twice this year with their family.

36. (Future Continuous) – The doctor

1. The doctor will be seeing.

2. The doctor will be seeing patients.
3. The doctor will be seeing patients tomorrow morning.
4. The doctor will be seeing patients tomorrow morning at the hospital.
5. The doctor will be seeing patients tomorrow morning at the hospital until noon.

37. (Simple Present) – Birds

1. Birds build.
2. Birds build nests.
3. Birds build nests in trees.
4. Birds build nests in trees every spring.
5. Birds build nests in trees every spring to raise their young.

38. (Past Perfect Continuous) – The workers

1. The workers had been repairing.
2. The workers had been repairing the road.
3. The workers had been repairing the road since morning.
4. The workers had been repairing the road since morning before the rain started.
5. The workers had been repairing the road since morning before the rain started heavily.

39. (Simple Future) – My sister

1. My sister will cook.
2. My sister will cook dinner.
3. My sister will cook dinner tonight.
4. My sister will cook dinner tonight for our family.
5. My sister will cook dinner tonight for our family after returning home.

40. (Present Perfect Continuous) – We

1. We have been waiting.
2. We have been waiting patiently.
3. We have been waiting patiently for the bus.
4. We have been waiting patiently for the bus since 8 o'clock.
5. We have been waiting patiently for the bus since 8 o'clock in the morning.

41. (Simple Past) – The farmer

1. The farmer planted.
2. The farmer planted rice.
3. The farmer planted rice in the field.
4. The farmer planted rice in the field last week.
5. The farmer planted rice in the field last week before the heavy rain.