

Writing Tasks on the Upskill Test

1. Format of the Writing Section

Item	Details
Number of parts	2 parts
Total time	30 minutes
Part 1	Personal email (e.g., to a friend, family member, or colleague about an everyday situation – invitation, request, update)
Part 2	Formal text (e.g., reply to a job advertisement, a complaint, or a request to a business)
Minimum length	At least 50 words for each task
Word counter	The app shows a running word counter at the bottom right of the screen

2. Time Allocation

Part	Approximate Time	Minimum Words
Part 1 (Personal email)	~15 minutes	50 words
Part 2 (Formal text)	~15 minutes	50 words

3. Five Rules That Always Apply

1. Address every point – Write at least one sentence for each of the three things the prompt asks for.
2. Do not write less than 50 words – Keep an eye on the word counter as you type.
3. Keep your sentences simple – A correct simple sentence is better than a complicated sentence full of mistakes.
Example: "I like pizza. It is very good. I eat it with my friends."
4. Use basic linking words – and, but, because, also, first, second, then.
5. Check spelling and grammar before you submit – A quick re-read is worth a minute of your time.

4. Common Mistakes to Avoid

- Forgetting the greeting or sign-off
- Writing one long paragraph instead of grouping ideas

- Repeating the same point twice to reach 50 words (markers can see this)
 - Using very informal language – slang, emojis, abbreviations like u, ur, gr8 (even in a friendly email)

5. Test Day Checklist – Writing Reminders

- Address every bullet point in the prompt
 - At least 50 words – watch the counter
 - Include a greeting and sign-off
 - Use simple sentences and basic linkers
 - Re-read before you submit

6. General Test-Taking Rules (Apply to Writing Too)

Three rules for every section:

1. Answer the easy questions first – Don't get stuck on a hard one. Skip it and come back if the section allows.
 2. Go back to the ones you skipped – Use any time at the end to revisit anything you weren't sure about.
 3. Always check your answers before submitting – A quick re-read often catches a small mistake that costs marks.

7. Before You Start the Writing Section

Each section opens with a short instruction screen. Read it carefully – even if you have seen it before. The screen will tell you:

- How long the section lasts
 - How many parts it contains
 - That you are now in secure test conditions – you cannot leave or pause the section once it begins
